

Epreuve d'Anglais

I/ Reading comprehension (5 marks)

Text :

“Just buy the ring and wear it on the third finger of your right hand on the day of the examination. The teacher will give you good marks”. Emeka gave the money and took the ring. But what could he tell his aunt ? He said he had held the money in his hand, but there has been such a crowd of people in the market that he had dropped it.

At last the great day arrived. Emeka wore the ring on the third finger of his right hand. The first paper was mathematics. He did the first three sums quickly but could not do the other seven. The rest of examination was like that as well. He did not worry because he knew he could get good marks.

The day came when the results were announced. When the principal came to Emeka's class, he called out Ngozi's name first. There were thirty in the class and seven had failed.

When the first twenty names were called and his name was not among them, he knew that the ring had not helped him.
